Memo

Date: August 14, 2009
To: Buyers Considering Foreclosed Property
From: Niel Thomas, ABR, CCIM, CRS, Associate Broker
Bethany Stamper, Licensed Asssistant
Subject: Licensee disclosure concerning property condition
Waiver of property disclosure form

The attached package consists of disclosures that I am making concerning the property at 1327 W 25th Ave Unit 329 (West 25th Condominium #329).

In addition to the information in the pages attached, the following disclosures are provided:

No significant defects observed.

When you make an offer on this property you are required to initial your receipt of this cover memo and every page of the package.

Please review the Alaska Real Estate Commission Consumer Pamphlet that was given to you either by myself before I provided you with "specific assistance" concerning the property, or by the licensee who represents you. That pamphlet outlines the duties that real estate licensees owe the public in all relationships. Please note that these duties do not include the duty "to conduct an independent investigation of a property". You are specifically advised that I and my firm have not conducted an independent investigation of this property, and do not plan to do so.

Determining the condition of the property, which was acquired in foreclosure by a lending institution, is your responsibility. What is required by law to be disclosed by myself as a licensee is attached hereto and represents all the information that I will be providing.

Finally, please note the waiver form that is part of this package. Alaska law provides that a buyer and seller may waive the obligation for them to complete the form provided by the Alaska Real Estate Commission. This institutional owner requires this waiver be executed as a condition of selling the property to you.

The pages that follow are the seller's Standard Counter Offer and Addendum. They are included for information purposes only and are not required to make an offer to purchase. Should your offer be accepted, the seller will prepare this document and it will become part of the final ratified contract.

You are encouraged, however, to review these forms. They contain many provisions that are common to institutionally-owned sellers. These provisions are not consistent with much of what is found in the Alaska MLS Purchase and Sale agreement. To the extent that the Alaska agreement differs from this seller's attached eight-page agreement, the latter is controlling and supersedes the Alaska agreement.

21. The Buyer shall not be allowed, under any circumstance, to receive funds from the closing that exceed the amount of the earnest money plus prepaid deposits paid by the Buyer. In the event that the proposed HUD reflects proceeds to the Buyer in excess of the earnest money and prepaid deposits, the closing cost credit by Seller shall be reduced so that the Buyer receives an amount exactly equal to the earnest money amount, plus prepaid deposits by the Buyer.
22. FINAL OFFER ACCEPTANCE IS SUBJECT TO INVESTOR APPROVAL.
23. Seller shall have a minimum of thirty (30) days from the earlier of the closing date or the date upon which Seller receives a copy of a title insurance commitment/title report within which to resolve title exceptions, defects, or other title issues which in any way impede or impair Seller's ability to convey insurable title. If, within such thirty (30) day period, Seller determines that it is unable or unwilling to resolve such matters, the Buyer (I) may take title in its then state, thereby waiving any title objections, or (II) terminate the contract and receive a refund of any deposit as Buyer's sole and exclusive remedy. Notwithstanding any language to the contrary in the offer, addenda or counter offer, if buyer defaults in the performance of the contract, 100% of the earnest money will go the seller

25. Notwithstanding any language to the contrary in the offer, addendum, or counter offer, in any action or proceeding between buyer and seller, seller does not agree to indemnify or hold broker(s) harmless from and against any and all liability, loss, cost, damages or expenses incurred by Broker(s).
26. Seller makes no representation and advises buyers to make their own investigation to determine the source of the water supply and type of sewage disposal system.
27. This property may be subject to a redemption period per your State's requirements. It is important that you check with the closing attorney or closing agent on your sale to see if these periods have expired, as the subject property would not be available for closing until the period that applies has expired, or could possibly not close due to a prior mortgagor or lien holder exercising their option according to the applicable period that would apply in your State. Seller makes no guarantees or representations on timeframes of expiration of redemption periods as may apply in your State. Should one of the above periods apply to your sale, and prohibit closing, Buyer may exercise their option to cancel the contract of sale and receive earnest monies back from Seller. Buyer(s) shall remain solely responsible and liable to the Seller for Buyer(s)' performance of each and every warranty and obligation under this agreement.
29. LEAD-BASED PAINT DISCLOSURE

This contract is contingent upon a risk assessment or inspection of the property for the presence of lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards at the Purchaser's expense until 9 p.m. on the seventh calendar day after ratification. The lead-based paint that is in good condition is not necessarily a hazard. See the EPA pamphlet Protect Your Family From Lead in Your Home for more information. The Seller may, at the Seller's option within 10 (ten) days after delivery of the addendum, elect in writing whether to correct the condition(s) prior to settlement. If the Seller will correct the condition, the Seller shall furnish the Purchaser with certification form a risk assessor or inspector demonstrating that the condition has been remedied before the close of the settlement. If the Seller does not elect to make the repairs, or if the Seller makes a counter-offer, the Purchaser shall have 10 (ten) days to respond to the counter-offer or remove this contingency and buy the property in "as is" condition or this contract shall become void. The purchaser may remove this contingency at any time without cause.
